

Master Storage and Delivery Agreement

_____ agrees with _____ (Name of Company) (Name of Client)
to store and/or deliver property as directed by the Client. Property normally consists of new or custom furniture.

Client must provide Company at least 24-hour notice prior to anticipated delivery into Company's warehouse of such property and must provide us 24-hour notice of planned delivery to customer of Client. In such notice Client must provide information on ownership of the property and whether charges will be paid by a party other than the Client.

Client must assure that Company has reasonable access to the customer's location so that the delivery drivers and/or employees are able to safely deliver the goods.

Company will do its best to ensure the safety of the goods in storage, transit, and during the delivery of the goods into the customer's residence or business.

Unless specifically agreed to in advance of any project, in the case of loss or damage to the property either during delivery or in storage, Company assumes only a limited liability of $100 per item.

Company will not be responsible for any damages caused after its delivery drivers and/or employees leave the customer's residence or business. The customer must inspect the goods to determine their condition prior to the departure of Company employees, and the customer must sign a "proof of delivery" sheet to indicate this.

The standard fees for these storage and delivery services are outlined in the attached schedule of charges, including any delivery cancellation charges.

This Agreement is effective as of _____ and continues until cancelled by either party. Such cancellation request must be made in writing and will be effective thirty days after requested. Any property in the care, custody or control of Company must be returned to its owner prior to the date of any such cancellation. If fees or charges are unpaid for more than sixty days, Company will request such cancellation.
